

Annual Conference
June 17th - 19th, 2010 at University of Zagreb, Faculty of Forestry

Bachelor/Master education in forest sciences – ready for the next decade?

Associated with the ICAⁱ Week of Conferences and ECHAEⁱⁱ 2010

(June 14th -19th, 2010)

<http://www.echae10.org>

SILVA members are encouraged to arrive in time to attend the ICA Week of Conferences Reception on Wednesday 16th June and the opening session of the ECHAE conference in the morning of the 17th June.

The title of the opening ECHAE Session is – Reflection on the success and challenges in the implementation of the Bologna Process during the past 10 years and looking forward to 2020 – lessons learnt.

SILVA PROGRAMME – OVERVIEW

Begin	Thursday, June 17th
13:00 - 14:00 h	Registration
14:00 h	Welcome addresses Prof. Dr. Andrija Bogner, Dean Forestry Faculty, University Zagreb Prof. Dr. Gerhard Müller-Starck, SILVA President
14:20 – 16:00 h	Session 1: European case studies; part 1; Moderator: M. Ziesak M. Gerzabek ⁱⁱⁱ , K. Stampfer; Wien, Austria Experiences of the University of Natural Resources and Applied Life Sciences (BOKU) in the Bologna system with special reference to studies in forestry J. Viewegh, Prague, Czech Republic Quo vadis eruditio silvarum? G. Müller-Starck ⁱⁱⁱ , M. Ziesak, A. Schieder, Freising, Germany Bologna Cycles 1-3 at the Technische Universität München: Current Status and Chances for Improvement

	R. Mühlsiegelⁱⁱⁱ, S. Lewark, Freiburg, Germany Incentives for international BSc Mobility: case of Faculty of Forest and Environmental Sciences (University Freiburg, Germany) in the Frame of the DAAD Programme "Bachelor PLUS" J. Arevaloⁱⁱⁱ, D. Gritten, B. Mola, P. Pelkonen, Joensuu, Finland Global Challenges in Local Context: Experiences from a MSc Forestry Module
16:00 – 16:30 h	Coffee break
16:30 – 18:00 h	Session 1: European case studies; part 2; Moderator: R. Mühlsiegel F. Lakatos, Sopron, Hungary The Bologna Process at the Faculty of Forestry, University of West- Hungary, Sopron P. Böhnke, Tharandt, Germany Bologna in Tharandt – Review after the first Bachelor run is done Fernando Garcia Robredo, Madrid, Spain New Forestry Curricula at the Technical University of Madrid H. Faxⁱⁱⁱ, J. Schuchmann, Freising, Germany The Bologna Process and Students' Mobility: Options and Frustrations F. Kaiser, Freiburg, Germany IFSA's Contribution to Forestry Education - Role, Potential and Challenges of a Students' Network
19:00 h	Conference dinner – (jointly with ICA-ECHAE)

Begin	Friday, June 18th
8:30 – 10:00 h	Session 2: Discussion, group work and conclusions Bachelor & Master education in forest sciences - ready for the next decade?
10:00 – 10:30 h	Coffee break
10:30 – 11:30 h	Presentation of the 3 universities, applying for SILVA membership <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Y. Serengil: University of Istanbul - A. Nahlik: University of Sopron - M. Susnjar, R. Despot: University of Zagreb
11:30 – 12:30 h	SILVA General Assembly (Representatives of the applying universities are requested to join this meeting at 11:45)
12:30 – 14:30 h	Lunch break
14:00 – 15:00 h	Continuation of lectures and discussions

15:00 – 19:00 h	Field trip – Education and research at the Forest Faculty, Zagreb
19:00 h	Dinner

Begin	Saturday, June 19th
8:30 – 12:00 h	Half day field trip – Forest Management and silviculture of oak (Quercus robur L.) stands

For all presenters on Thursday: You are given a time for your presentation of 15 minutes plus a time of 5 minutes for the discussion.

FURTHER INFORMATION

June 11th, 2010:

Gerhard Müller-Starck, President SILVA Network (mail to: mueller-starck@forst.tu-muenchen.de)

Martin Ziesak, Secretary General SILVA Network (mail to: ziesak@wzw.tum.de)

ⁱ ICA: Association for European Life Science Universities

ⁱⁱ ECHAE: European Conference on Higher Agricultural Education

ⁱⁱⁱ Presenting author